Lincoln Open Space and Recreation Plan Update Community Meeting #1

AGENDA

Wednesday September 14, 2016 - 7:00pm
Ballfield Road: Hartwell Multipurpose Room

- 7:00-7:30 Welcome & Open House: Open Space and Recreation Advisory Group
Upon entrance: pin your property & favorite place, pick a color card
- 7:30-7:45 Introduction: Anne Capra, Conservation Works LLC
What is an Open Space and Recreation Plan?
Some types of land-use are required (e.g. Cemetery Land)
An updated plan allows the Town to get State funding
Snapshot of Community Survey Results
- 7:45-8:15 Small Group Activity Break Out Session: Advisory Group Moderators
Attendees will work with their assigned round-table groups to review the criteria for each land-use category (recreation, conservation, agriculture, cemetery, mixed).
They will discuss the following questions:
a. Is there room for shared uses on Lincoln properties?
b. If so, what types of uses could co-exist?
c. How would these uses complement each other?
d. How would these uses conflict with each other?
e. Who should be involved in creating/supporting/expanding these uses?
- 8:15-8:45 Small Groups Report Back to Full House: Conservation Works Moderator
The designated note taker from each group will report their group's responses to the questions. CW will facilitate the discussion and record information from each group on flip charts at the front of the room. Lincoln staff will mark a map of the places as they are recognized by each group.
- 8:45-9:00 Wrap Up and Questions
