

Public Meeting Notice

Town of Lincoln American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) Working Group

Wednesday evening, February 2, 2022

7:00 p.m.

The Select Board's ARPA Working Group is hosting a virtual public meeting the evening of February 2nd for the purpose of reviewing its initial spending recommendations, and taking public comment and suggestions. The ARPA Working Group was appointed by the Select Board in September of last year to develop a recommended spending plan for the $ 2 million the Town will receive under ARPA. Information about the Working Group's process and its interim recommendations may be found on the Town's website at ARPA Working Group | Lincoln, MA - Official Website \(lincolntown.org\). After processing public reactions and suggestions, the Working Group will develop a set of final recommendations for consideration by the Select Board which, in its capacity as the Town's executive officer, will make the final determination on the spending plan.

For the Working Group,
Timothy S. Higgins
Town Administrator
